Greek Spell Checker For Mac

This may be a shot in the dark, although worth asking Hey guys, I have been in contact with Spector, and they have assured me that the eblaster software has now been disabled.. It seemed appropo, so I figured, why not?! Having a good time so far I just spent the last two hours wandering around the floor with Omar and Sarah Shahine.. I was wondering if any of you knew any code as provided by Linc to type into the terminal in which would provide me with the email address that was used to send the eblaster reports to? They informed me they need a court-order to disclose that information...:) signing off from MacWorld Facebook today an update coming to its iOS and Android mobile apps, as well as its main website, that is aimed to make birthdays more 'meaningful' for users based in the United States..
